

WEBINAR

Injury Prevention for Farmers

No registration required

Charlotte Harris, MD, Orthopedic Surgeon
Amy Johnson, NP-C, Nurse Practitioner
Hannah Harris, OTD, Occupational Therapist

February 16, 2021
1pm - 2pm EST

Too often, farmers receive injury prevention recommendations while in the doctor's office after an accident already occurs. This webinar brings three medical professionals from agricultural communities together to discuss what steps farmers can take to prevent common on-farm injuries. Topics will include using farm equipment, protecting joints from impact injury, and identifying minor injury before it becomes a major injury.
